

CALL FOR CANDIDATES
THE ASSEMBLY OF FIRST NATIONS SECRETARIAT for REGIONAL CHIEF OF NOVA SCOTIA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Candidate Submission Deadline:

February 26, 2020
4:00 P.M. Atlantic Standard time

On January 16, 2020 the Chiefs of Nova Scotia and Newfoundland (“Chiefs”) made the decision to commence the process to select a new Regional Chief for the Nova Scotia (NS) and Newfoundland (NL) region.

The Chiefs are seeking submissions from qualified and dedicated candidates who would like to be considered to become the NS and NL Regional Chief.

The role of the Regional Chief (RC) to advocate and act as an Ambassador on behalf of the NS and NL Chiefs and the Assembly of First Nations National forum. The RC holds a political office, that is accountable to the Chiefs and AFN. As the Ambassador for our region, our Mi’kmaq Communities expect the highest standards of professional and personal conduct from the Regional Chief and their office.

The term of office the RC will be a three (3) year term. The RC may be re-elected for further terms.

Mission of the Office of the Regional Chief

To restore and enhance the relationship among Mi’kmaq in Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, and Canada.

- a. Ensure strong representation of the Chiefs whom he/she represents in concert with the AFN Charter and the Regional Chief’s Rules and Procedures, as developed by the Chiefs of the region;
- b. Balance First Nations’ regional and national interests in a manner that supports the NS and NL Chiefs, the AFN Charter and Regional Chief’s Rules and Procedures;
- c. To communicate on an ongoing basis with the Chiefs to keep them informed and to seek instruction and guidance; and
- d. Work in a manner that is consistent with the NS and NL Regional Chief’s Constitution (including Schedules) as developed by the Chiefs of the region, AFN Charter and the vision, mandate and directives of the Chiefs.

The Submission Package must include the following:

1) Letter of interest - this would outline:
