Announcing the Netmaker Coaching Program - presented by Cando

The Netmaker Coaching Program - presented by Cando - will continue the empowering work and momentum established by Cando's Youth Connect and Economic Development Youth Summit. This Coaching Program will focus on Indigenous youth engagement and coaching. Through the delivery of several on-going youth initiatives, Cando has learned that engaging with youth, will not only impact them personally, but will also create incredible positive change in their communities.

Youth will be motivated, encouraged, supported - "Coached" - to consider the impact of economic development and entrepreneurial mind-set on their careers and communities; they will be shown the steps in researching business opportunities and the supports available to assist them in starting or growing a business.

The Online Netmaker Coaching with Cando program is designed for First Nations, Métis, and Inuit Youth from across Canada within the age group of 17-35 years old. The course will promote to youth leadership skills, resiliency, and the confidence to reach their full potential.

Upon successful completion of this course students should be able to:

- Implement tools to become the leader in your own life
- Reprogram your mind for achievement
- Embrace the power of what you already have within yourself
- Increase your confidence & remove the fear of public speaking
- Know how to launch & scale a profitable business
- Possess deeper insights into Indigenous Peoples economy opportunities
- Learn the success principles of Indigenous Leadership
- Know how to get "unstuck" & keep moving forward
- Possess tools to stay positive and focused
- Gain deeper insights into how your digital presence is key to long term impact
