

celebrate!

NATIONAL ABORIGINAL DAY
AT Kejimikujik National Park

We have reserved a portion of the Park from Sunday, June 19 to Wednesday, June 22

Come for the day or stay overnight

Monday, June 20 – Michael R. Denny will be providing workshops

Tuesday, June 21 – NAD celebration

*Our Drummers followed by Stoney Bear Drummers and Dancing
Followed by a Potluck Supper*

We have reserved tenting, camper spots and the Outdoor Kitchen area.

If you require special accommodations or do not have access to a tent or camper we can work with you to assist so all can participate.

Please contact to the Band Administrator (Kerry) to reserve a spot by May 15, 2022. Details regarding sites, check in times, how to enter the park etc. will be provided at a later date to all those who sign up. Please do not contact the Park directly.

OTHER INFORMATION

- Another notice will follow closer to the event with more details including times
- You do NOT need to contact Kerry for day visits – only if you plan on staying
- Each person is responsible for providing their own plate, glass and eating utensils for the potluck – we are trying to avoid using disposable items
