

PJILITA'Q ALL WELCOME!

Join Us for an Enchanting Afternoon with Rose Meuse and Friends
Celebrating the Art of Birch Bark Canoe Craftsmanship.

Immerse yourself in a journey of cultural heritage and skilled artistry. Experience the story of a traditional birch bark canoe brought to life through the hands of Rose Meuse and her dedicated team. Inspired by the teachings and legacy of her mentor, Todd Labrador, Rose embodies the ancient art and wisdom passed down through generations. This presentation is more than just an exhibit; it's a heartfelt tribute to our ancestral wisdom and community spirit. Join us in the beautiful village of L's+tkuk for an afternoon of storytelling, learning, and community celebration.

- Witness the fusion of history, culture, and craftsmanship.
- Engage with interactive stations - feel, touch, and connect.
- Discover the beauty of Mi'kmaw traditions and language.
- Savour the taste of Luskniqn, our traditional bread.

Where: Oakdene Center, L's+tkuk (Bear River)

When: Saturday, January 27th, 2:00 PM - 3:30 PM